DEDICATION

Your classroom was filled with more than desks and books. There was warmth, laughter, and you.

As a teacher you guided us through the pathway of knowledge and down the road to maturity. You took pride in our accomplishments and stood by us in our failures. You were generous in time and enthusiasm and set an example for all of us to follow.

We, the Class of 1976, will always have room for you in our hearts, Mr. Stack.

During the past four years at Westwood High School, the administration has altered the image of the traditional secondary school to a liberal mixture of education through classwork, athletics, and student-faculty forum interaction.

We were the first class to profit from the use of the new Media Center, mezzanine, cafeteria, gym, pool, and no-pass areas. All of these ideas were made possible through the hard work and co-operation of the students, faculty, and administrators.

With the addition of newcomer Dr. Andreas Lehner, the administrators have provided the direction needed for our school to profitably further our education.

GUIDANCE

With today's tight job market, the services provided by the Westwood High School Guidance Department are invaluable. The counselors meet with students in every grade to aid in the process of course selections and discuss various plans for the future. The department schedules college and career conferences to help the juniors and seniors in planning for jobs or schools. The office also has indispensable material and equipment about college and vocational training.

Under the direction of Mrs. Celia S. Viall, Mr. Thomas Hughes and Mrs. Claire Sheff do an exceptional job advising the underclassmen. Mrs. Viall, who advises the senior class, receives a round of applause from the class of 1976 for her long hard labor on all of the transcripts.

Industrial Arts

At Westwood High School, students may enrich their education by developing skills in the industrial vocations. Graphic and industrial arts grant students the opportunity to work with an unlimited range of industrial processes, materials and equipment. A wide range of courses are offered including woodworking, metalworking, electricity, electronics, crafts and the field of graphic sciences. This department avails itself to both boys and girls interested in exploring this multifaceted field. This year the department helped immensely with the school publications by printing the Sacred Cheese and No Parentheses.

Creating opportunities for the student to excel in the fine arts and crafts is the job of the talented teaching trio of Mr. Thomas DelSignore, Mr. Michael Milan, and Mrs. Judith DesPres.

Offering concentration in all of the fine-art areas including painting, illustration, sculpture and design, the Art Department strives to grant every student a chance to dabble in a variety of media.

Whether the student's aim is to obtain the solid background necessary to further their art career or just to gain more insight on their own personal creative ability, Westwood High School's Art Department offers a suitable course.

Under the guidance of two very dedicated directors, Mr. John J. Markarian Jr. and Mr. Sebastian Bonaiuto, the Westwood High School Music Department has lived up to its fantastic reputation by featuring many fine performances of their instrumental and choral ensembles.

Through their inspiration and leadership, there have been successful exchange and seasonal concerts, and a Pops Concert, competitions, and delightful half-time shows. Without "Mr. Mark and Mr. B." this year's school musical "Oklahoma" could not have been a success.

English Teaching – Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Miss Frances Burns
Head of Department

Under the direction of Miss Frances Burns, the English Department was involved in many school affairs. Sponsoring trips to plays and movies, the department taught the student through cultural immersion as well as classwork.

With the guiding hand of Mrs. Ellin Booras, the school staged a successful musical, "Oklahoma." The senior class play, "Tom Jones," was also a hit, along with Miss Deborah Hernan's spring one-act plays. Mrs. Ellen Eberley advised a large staff in creating a superb literary magazine "No Parentheses," along with the student-oriented "Video Speaks for Youth" broadcasts.

However, English isn't just all fun and games, and the other talented members of this department taught courses which improve reading-and-writing skills and cultural awareness. Once again, junior and senior members of the high school were able to satisfy their English requirements by choosing from a variety of electives a course to please their individual tastes.

Social Studies

Once again, the Social Studies Department offered courses which remained popular to all of the students. The ever-popular sociology class with its field trips and guest speakers, along with the psychology class, was always filled with students, as were the anthropology, Chinese and Indian Civilization classes. United States History was required for all of the juniors, and many participated in "reliving history" through a trip to Williamsburg, Virginia. Two advanced-placement courses in history — western civilization and United States History were offered to talented students.

Under the direction of Mr. William Davis, the Department encouraged students to reach out and touch the world.

The Language Department works to familiarize the students with the customs, food, and geography of both France and Spain. To interested students, Latin proves to assist in improving both grammatical and vocabulary skills.

The Department is directed by Mrs. Elaine Eaton along with Mr. Manol Dhimitri, Mr. Robert Burke, Mr. George Parker, Mrs. Barbara Grey, and Mrs. Ann Marie Gear who assist her in instructing the foreign languages. Mr. Parker is also the Director of Driver Education.

The department also promotes the Spanish club and a group of advanced French students to take opportunities to explore the cultural aspects of the countries through trips to restaurants, museums, and theaters.

Under a Winking Sun

*We floated lightly, blindly.
Airily, we breathed through pores of Thunderous sunshine.
Mischievously proud,
We danced on low, free winds;
Then were caught on knotted brambles
Which cooled with mint soft buds.
Each watery bead wandered expectantly.
Struggling, disentangling,
Gathering strength in strange separation,
Clinging to the Past and Present
In sightless obedience to the Future.
Converging once more
We form a soothing, confident pool
Of pondering individuals.
The mirrored drops glisten
Both alone and in confluence
Under a winking sun.*

—Rosemary Conway

Like Roses in the Park

*In the rose garden in the park
let us learn how little there is to fear from the competition of conflicting seasons—
and avoid comparisons, alone in that quiet place.
The stillness of the slender bushes is, in itself, a virtue.
The velvety crimson petals bask in brightness;
solitude is theirs alone.
The lush greenery blankets
the earth's bareness with growth in all directions.
Nurtured in the same soil, each plant is alike, yet somehow different.
Let us learn to branch towards the sun
like roses in the park*

—Karol Ballantine

*Years of hardening must my hands chisel
For days past were molded as clay
In the visions of elders and peers
Concealed am I in stone
Chipping it off to unveil myself
Then readying to be bronze cast
So I may remain sturdy.
My intellect is the tool
To sculpt my soul
And polish the scratches.*

CLASS HISTORY

We came as freshmen, individuals thinking of ourselves and of our own immediate friends. We were unaware of what it meant to be a class, yet, we were ready to wander into an environment of firsts: A "college-style" media center, a "rock and roll" mezzanine, a "smoking" courtyard, and a not so lucrative Student Council store.

We were captivated by the gossip column of the Sacred Cheese on the first day of school, by Fonzi and the gang on Fifties Day, by the Wizard of Oz on Fantasy Day, by an array of one-act play characters — both in the fall and spring — and by the ever-popular musical, "Bye-bye Birdie."

Our enthusiasm was born at this time for the sports life at Westwood High School football games, track meets, and tennis matches took on a new meaning for us. As we, members of the Class of 1976, participated in them — mud in the pool, Mary Anne and Anne on the courts, and Fab on the field.

Do you also remember having sopping wet, sometimes frozen hair from the "mandatory" swim classes or Mr. Sloan's promotion to high school with us — bearded AFS'er Claret Battistella — or Mr. Doyle's chasing us into the "No Pass Area" — or Vinny Lambert's invasion of Westwood.

Throughout this celebrated year of "firsts", our class officers were: President Steve Polechronis, Vice-President Dave Quinn, Secretary Anne McGillicuddy, and Treasurer Kim Ofria.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Sophomore year this class began taking shape in a painfully slow way. Although there was a conscious effort towards money-raising, we learned what the limits were on what we could and could not do. The officers at the time were: President Donald Smith, Vice President David Bishop, Secretary Rosemary Conway and Treasurer Kim Ofria.

Under their direction, a few activities were accomplished, and the class received an A for effort. We picked up $50.00 here and there at a variety of bake sales at football games and at some of the plays, took a trip to the Ice Capades, held a skating party at the new Westwood Rink, and spent a day at Nantasket Beach. Mr. Earles, then a class advisor for the first time, supported us with an enthusiasm few people realized.

This was also the year the HADC was organized under the chairmanship of Gregg Boari. This group was to be followed later by equally innovative societies.

The institution of the AFS dinner was established, and Harris Stylianou was the exchange student from Cyprus.

The second musical of WHS was "Guys and Dolls", so a lot of sophomores became cigar-smoking gangsters and gaudy flappers of the roaring twenties.

In 1973, Westwood High switched from the Dual County League to the Tri-Valley League. It was the first year of Tuc's football camps, and the first year of soccer with sophomores Jim Fabiano and Stephen Polechronis being two of the three captains.

The only sophomore on Varsity basketball was newcomer Mike Miller. The team ended its season with a record of 15-5 and went to the Eastern Mass. Tournament. Both the Girls' Swim and Basketball teams went undefeated and became Tri-Valley League champs.

We all seemed to be trying "independence" while still hanging on to old dependencies, but it was a good year for deciding in which directions we wanted to go.

JUNIOR YEAR

As we became upperclassmen, lectures on the future were being rammed down our throats. PSAT's, NMSQT's, SAT's, and Achievements were all dutifully taken. A great majority of the class had a new found activity — cruising around in the family car, while their licenses were hot off the presses.

Our officers: President, Billy Geary; Vice President, David Rice; Secretary, Rosemary Conway; and Treasurer, David Quinn converted the class from financially troubled to economically sound. The Junior class's holdings tripled during the year; thanks to numerous bake sales, candy sales, and dizzy dues drives. The Marx Brothers and their film visited the high school in another fund raising venture.

The event on which the most time was spent was the Prom, held at Sidney Hill Country Club with the theme "Time in a Bottle". The school musical was Kiss Me Kate. The Sacred Cheese was recognized as one of the top school newspapers in the Northeast in a tri-state conference held at American International College.

Hans Lundkvist, whose home base was Sweden, our AFS student. Leaving Westwood in the AFS program were Becky Smyth, who traveled to Indonesia, and Beth Scollins, who visited Belgium. We also had visitors such as Tom Ellis, Father Drinan, Len Berman, and Russian sailors gracing our company. Westwood High School received the Dalton Trophy as the football, girls swimming, girls basketball, winter and spring track, girls tennis, and softball teams all were league champs. The field hockey team also won two games. With all this behind us we finally reached the top.

SENIOR YEAR

This year has been the best year for the Class of '76 by far. Aided by the knowledge of being seniors, parties like Barry's, and the realization that it was finally time to get together, we started to look around and see that everyone was out to enjoy life. This meant a variety of things to various people, but we learned to respect their differences.

Planning the year's activities was the tireless class advisor Mr. Beurman, helped by the senior homeroom teachers and President Bill Geary, Vice President Stephen Polechronis, Secretary Rosemary Conway and Treasurer Bill Burhoe. The class served the whole school with the doughnut program under the direction of Stephen Polechronis. Almost all the activities were successful in enjoyment and participation, including the Senior Class Play "Tom Jones", breakfast at Bickford's, the wheelchair basketball game, the girls vs. boys hockey game, the banquet and the class trip.

Intermingled with these activities were the muddy Thanksgiving Day football game, skip day at Old Silver Beach, the Prom and Cahoon's.

In the fall, the senior class play was a unifying force and a good time for all. The stars of the 18th century piece were David Quinn and Debbie Goodale. The greatest contributor however, was Danny Towle, who came through with a party in a dangerously desperate situation.

Also in drama, "Oklahoma" emerged as our last musical. Clay "Baltimore" McNally arrived in time to land one of the leading roles, which were shared by Mark Cavanaugh, Jeanne Munroe, Cindy Goodale, Robin Crawford and Mark Gelotte.

The Banquet was an especially successful evening. Undertaken with the eyes of the world upon us, it was a sophisticated, civilized night of dinner and dancing. The class trip was just as enjoyable.

In sports, the girls' basketball and swim teams went undefeated in the league, and were joined by the boys' football and track teams. Westwood High School will be missing all the fantastic athletes that have led many of its winning teams over the past four years.

We had the pleasure of having exchange students Ewald Filler from Austria and Mari Tsuda from Japan, who were among the most open and friendliest members of our class.

Being seniors brought other experiences as well. Breakfast at Ann's, lunch at Mac's and Louis', college applications, turning legal, the PLA and Mr. Flaherty's lunch patrol were a few. Others were the continuing saga of Annie and Mud, Dr. Lehner and his clipboard, highway equipment in the courtyard and fog area signs.

It's strange to think that we've only really gotten to know ourselves as a whole in this one year, but it was all worth waiting for. We've had some good times but it's not over yet. Here's to graduation, a great party at Paul's, and a happy, fulfilled life in the future.

Under the direction of Head Coach Paul Tuccelli, and Senior Tri-Captains Mike Band, Dan Towle, and Skip Zabilski, the 41 member Wolverine team faced the challenges of what others thought would be a rebuilding year. With 17 spirited seniors setting the pace, the Wolverines were out to prove they didn't need any rebuilding! With seniors Vince Lambert, Phil Lyons, Dan Towle, Dave Brawley and Ed Susi on the offensive line, and Skip Zabilski, Chuck Sullivan, Mike Band and Danny Sheehan in the backfield the Wolverine had plenty of offensive punch. Defensively, Westwood was a power to be reckoned with — Mark Digregorio, Roy Johnson, Bobby Wallace, and injury sidelined Greg Boari, made other offensive units thing called "Green Pride", and it would stick with this young team throughout the entire season.

Westwood opened their ten game slate against the toughest team they would face all season, defending superbowl champion Hanover Indians. The final score was 14-6, Westwood had lost its opener, but proved they were tougher than most had expected, as Hanover went on to allow only 12 points scored against them all season.

On Monday, September 29, the Wolverines piled up 422 yards while belting Hopkinton 25-6.

The Wolverines went above the .500 mark to stay, when on October 4th they traveled to Dover to play the Dover-Sherborn Raiders, and play they did as they ground out a 28-12 victory.

One week later, Westwood hosted Ashland. By this time they had made people realize that they were a force to be accounted for. Westwood's defense devastated Ashland, bringing the Clocker offense to a grinding halt. The final score was Westwood 16, Ashland 7.

On October 28 Westwood met Medway. Both teams were undefeated in league play and the victor would sit in first place in the Tri-Valley standings. These two teams tied for first last year and both wanted to win badly. Nobody could do it though, as the game ended in a 6-6 deadlock.

The 1976 Wolverine Football Squad work. Paul Irving, Bill McGrail, Jeff Deacon and A.F.S. student Ewald Filler were right there when needed as all of Westwood High knew we were in for a Good Year!

After months of pre-season workouts, a long hard summer camp, lots of work, sweat and pride, the "New" Wolverines were finally ready.

It was Saturday, September 20 and the Wolverines were about to open their 1975 football season. As far as most people were concerned, Westwood was an uncertainty, there were too many "if's". Most people were sure Westwood was not going to be a contender. The Wolverines had lost most of last year's squad, they had a new quarterback, a new backfield, and a first year defensive secondary, it seemed almost every face was a new one. No, people thought, Westwood was not going to be a contender this year.

But how wrong they could be — if only they had known how far off they actually were. What a surprise they had coming! If only they knew that their "new" quarterback, and running backs would become some of the best in the division, that their "New" defense would be one of the toughest any of their opponents would have to face. If only they knew.

A new aspect of Wolverine football surfaced this year, a

On November 1, the Wolverines picked up their first shutout of the year, beating Medfield's "Big Blue" 35-0. The Westwood defense never let the Warriors get past the Wolverine 24, in an outstanding show of defensive strength.

In their second and last non-league appearance of the year, the Wolverines suffered their second loss, (both non-league) of the season. Everything seemed to be missing as Wayland pulled off a come-from-behind 27-6 victory.

The next weekend, Westwood traveled to play Big Bad Bellingham. Bellingham turned out to be neither "Big" nor "Bad" as Westwood branded the Hawks with a 36-13 victory.

In a rain-postponed Millis game on November 22, The Wolverines posted their second shut out of the year, as Chuck Sullivan scored all four times to lead the Wolverines to a big 25-0 win. This set up the big Thanksgiving day clash with Holliston. Westwood had to beat Holliston, a loss or a tie would put them in second place.

The Wolverines maintained their hex over superbowl-bound Holliston in a mud plagued scoreless tie on panther turf. Holliston has never scored against Westwood, in 6-0, 8-0 losses and this 0-0 tie.

Westwood finished the Tri-Valley season in second place with a 6-0-2 record. A great team, and all of Westwood knew it.

Basketball

The Westwood five ended a long and grueling season with a 16-7 record, while reaching the quarterfinals of the Tech Tourney for the fourteenth time in sixteen seasons. Under the able guidance of our own "Wizard of Westwood" — Head Coach Gail Thwing and his new assistant, Coach Robert Bon, the Wolverines started this season in a blistering fashion, beating Millis (67-40), Ashland (75-36), and Hopkinton (81-60).

Led by Dave Olson, top scorer against Millis, the daring duo of Mike Miller and Bob Moses, playmaker Bill Burhoe, and "super" junior Steve Harrington plus a fine bench, the Wolverines continued the season on the ups and downs.

First a loss to Plymouth-Carver (90-67) despite a 20 point effort by Dave Olson, then a victory over Weston (69-52). Next came a heartfelt loss to arch-rival Medfield (65-59) backed up against a victorious effort over Mansfield (83-60). This was followed by a loss to another tough rival, Holliston (64-54) with Mike Miller tossing in 21 points for the night. Westwood finally got back on the track with three straight victories — first against Medway (72-62) with Steve Harrington sinking a game-high 30 points, then over Bellingham (61-48) and lastly trouncing Dover-Sherbourne (74-47) with Mike Miller continuing what would eventually lead to high scoring honors in four straight games averaging 17 points per game.

As all good things must come to an end, so, too, did their winning streak. Unfortunately it was against a team they had previously defeated.

A three-point loss to Millis (55-52) was a great letdown but like all great teams, they came back. Not intending to let this kind of loss happen again, the Green Machine bombed Ashland (66-43), following up with a dazzling performance by Steve Harrington as he broke the school's record for most points scored in a single game by pumping in an unbelievable 45 points in just three quarters as Westwood demolished Hopkinton (108-63).

Next came THE GAME, a rematch between Westwood and league-leading Medfield. Everyone was psyched up and ready — especially Mike Miller and Dave Olson. Miller struck for 21 points and Olson added 15 more, along with spectacular defense. However, on account of a few disputed calls, we lost (73-70).

Down in spirit after their close loss, Westwood lost their next game to Mansfield (62-59) but the depression lasted only that one game. Westwood went wild, ending the season in a blaze of glory, winning their last four games. Starting with Holliston (61-50), continuing with Medway (82-67) with Dave Olson popping in 25 points, then rolling over Bellingham (93-47), and Dover-Sherbourne (82-60). Mike Miller ended the regular season on a high not scoring 28 points against his former school.

"On to the Tech!" was the cry. Over Seekonk (70-58), over Holliston (44-34), finally reaching the quarterfinals versus Dorchester. Despite a gallant effort, our boys went down in defeat (68-60) but we were nevertheless proud. The Tech was over for us this year but we will be back. It was a fine season by a fine squad, but it was over.

The game has ended, the cheers have died down, but the memories are still fresh in our minds. Goodbye Mike Miller, Dave Olson, Bob Moses, and Bill Burhoe. You all made this an unforgettable season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Well, the girls did it again! The varsity went undefeated (19-0) and captured the Tri-valley League title for the third year in a row while the JV's had a respectable 17-12 record for second place in the league. Under coach Kathy Delaney-Smith, the young varsity was built into one of the strongest, most respected teams in the state. The team was unified under the leadership of Mary Ann McCoy, Ann McGinnis, and Ginny DeAngelis. The team is expected to be just as strong next year with several coming up from Coach Kathy Schurz's J.V.

Although the top-seeded Varsity fell victims to Foxboro in the state tourney, their accomplishments and recognition throughout the state were outstanding.

J.V. was coached by Paula Hillberg and J.V. had a record of 2-5-1 under the leadership of co-captains Beth Ingraham and Jane Cavanaugh. The team looks forward to next year with hopes resting on the younger athletes. Perhaps Westwood's Field Hockey Team won't be far from the State's next year?

The Westwood High Cross Country team had another good season this year with a fine 5-2 record. The squad was led by Captains David Quinn, Mark Gelotte, and Mark Cavanaugh. The harriers went through weeks of grueling practice but were disappointed by two close losses. The season was a fun one with the jokes and "contests" of Barry Reed and Evans Howard, two four year men on the squad. The surprise of the year was the appearance of Coach Fischler, dressed in white, leading exercises.

As far as individual performances go, the season was one of surprises as well as the expected. Greg White had another fine year leading the team. Mark Gelotte, a surprising Paul Powell, David Quinn and Peter Dresens rounded out the top five positions. Right behind them in the important 6, 7 and 8th position were Peter Hendrickson, Mark Cavanaugh and Steve Bourne. Seniors on the squad included Barry Reed, Evans Howard, Jon Chapin, Tom Palmer, George Lester and the Tri-Captains Quinn, Gelotte and Cavanaugh. The team should be strong next year with the return of several strong Juniors and Seniors and promising Freshman.

This year's Wolverine Hockey squad had a memorable season. The team, led by Tri-Captains Dave Rice, Chris McWade, and Dennis Sexton, gave all they could in each of their games. The highlights of the year came in two fantastic efforts; one against Bedford and the other versus Concord.

The team's all-star goalie Chris McWade proved to be frequently tested in the nets. In many games he was called on to face the bouncing rubber puck nearly sixty times. Dave Rice was the squad's high scorer and Tom Joyce was named unsung hero. Fine plays were executed by many other team members, especially Tom Merrow, Dennis Sexton, Bill Rogers, Paul Swartz, Steve Pratt, Mark Rushton, John Proccacino, Peter VanWart, Jeph Garside, and Rod Proccacino.

The team would like to thank their loyal fans — the cheerleaders, Mr. McWade, the Rice's, Liz, Bren, Sully, Riz, the Pratts, and the Rogers for attending all of their games. Coach Kevin Crowe also deserves special recognition for all the time he put into the team's worthwhile practices and activities.

Under the direction of Coach Hargreaves and Coach Gearon, the boys swept their closest competitor Holliston in the conference meet and sent Don Stewart, Dave Greenwood and Greg White to the States. 1976 Girls Spring Track Squad 1976 was labeled a "rebuilding year" for the Wolverine Winter Track Team. Coach Sanfason, a three-year veteran, knew he would have a difficult time filling the vacancies left by last year's graduates. With the motto "We came to win" and the help of Assistant Coach Paul Tuccelli, Coach Sanfason developed the second straight undefeated championship winter track team.

The team, led by Tri-Captains, Jim Fabiano, Dave Greenwood, and Skip Zabilski, intimidated all of their opponents, especially in the two-mile with Greg White and Mark Cavanaugh, Dave Quinn, and Mark Cavanaugh in the mile, league record holder Dave Greenwood in the hurdles, and state champion Jim Fabiano in the 300 and 40. Other great performances were turned in by Fred Cogswell, Paul Cappello, Chris Andrews, Jon Chapin, Tom Palmer, Skip Zabilski, Bill McGrail, Don Stewart, Jeff Jarvis, Nick Boyle, and the team's first female letter winner, Adrienne Giovino—not to mention a host of other underclassmen.

The only mar in an otherwise perfect record came against non-league Shrewsbury when the team arrived ten minutes late for the meet, resulting in the eventual disqualification of the Westwood jumpers after having been allowed to compete and win the necessary points required to put them on top.

Capping off the winter season, the Wolverines finished a solid second in the state meet with Greenwood, Cogswell, Zabilski, White, and Stewart all receiving medals and Fabiano winning the 300.

Next year's team looks like another league winner with many returning underclassmen and Coach Sanfason's new motto in mind — "Number one is much more fun!"

Many new school and league records were broken by this amazing team. Special efforts were turned in by Val Irvine, Val Gulla, Sandy Freidl, Liz Pallis, Adrienne Giovino, Karen Kaligian, and the three Fabiano's. The team bids a fond farewell to Coach Schurz, as no one can ever take her place.

Once again the baseball team ended an outstanding season as co-champions with a record of 12 wins and 4 losses. The team's co-operation on the field resulted in an enjoyable season for all.

Captain Jim Fabiano, leading all-star candidate, led his team at the plate with a superb .500 batting average. Mike Miller was chosen to be the all-star pitcher and accumulated a 19-5 record during his three years on the mound. Many memorable plays were turned in by a number of team members, especially seniors Dave Rice, Mike Band, Steve Burke, Richard Carroll, Dave Olson, Mark DiGregorio, and Tom Bulman.

The high point of the year was the decisive victory over Hyde Park in the quarter finals of the Tournament. Despite the rocky field and an aching Jim Fabiano, Ricky Carroll smashed a grand slam home run to put Westwood on top to stay. Their later loss to a fine Newburyport squad signified an end to a great season.

The girls are to be congratulated for their third undefeated league season but without the excellent coaching ability of Coach Kathy Delaney-Smith the girls realize this winning season wouldn't have been possible. The combined swimming-diving teams had 2 non-league upsets but these losses did not ruin their confidence as the girls went all the way to recapture the league title from Dover-Sherborn in an easily won tie-breaker swim meet.

This year the diving team did very well — Cindy Ferraro placed first in Easterns and States. Maura Casey placed second in the States and 3rd in the Easterns. Lisa Ferraro placed 4th in the States.

Under the leadership of first-year coach John Rogers, the spirited Wolverine Ski Team put together an incredibly strong and balanced cross-country and slalom attack to ski off with the Massachusetts Bay State League Ski Championship.

Westwood not only took the league championship for the first time ever, but also did it with the amazing record of 19 wins and only 3 losses. The fact that Westwood won with a very young team, the only seniors being Jeff Deacon and Dan Towle, further displayed the tremendous leadership ability of Coach Rogers. Captains Dan Towle and Kim Mathews were also instrumental in lifting this hard-skiing group of racers to first place in the league. 1976 will surely be an unforgettable year for all the members of the squad.

GOLF

A record of 9 wins and 5 losses was good enough to place the Wolverine golfers in fourth position in the Tri-Valley League standings. Coach Kodzis was proud of his squad which was extremely young and somewhat unfamiliar with many of the courses. With only one senior and one junior member, we can look for a fine season next year when the squad takes to the turf.

Perhaps the most impressive accomplishment was that of Carolyn Welsh making the squad as an alternate. She marks a first for Westwood golf — the first time a girl has ever made the team!

This year's Girls' Tennis Team completed another successful year with a record of 13 wins and 3 losses.

Capatains Becky Smyth and Becky Ingraham led their team through an outstanding season under the guidance of Coach Procaccino.

The girls proved in their regular season that they had talent, and they gave their best effort in the first round of the States against Falmouth. Mary Ann McCoy, Ann McGinnis, and Betsy Ratto executed victories in the singles. Betsy and Ann assured a team victory when they won three set matches.

The girls lost in the second round to Weston as all of the seniors were felling the repercussions of Rizzo's graduation party.

The team would like to thank "Coach Proc" for all that she did to make Westwood a winning team.

BOYS' TENNIS

Once again the Tennis Team finished an outstanding season with a record of 14 wins and 2 losses. The season was both meaningful and enjoyable. For the seniors, this year marked the end of four great seasons with the Tennis Team and Coach Peter Case.

The 1976 season was highlighted by fantastic plays executed by both upper and lower classmen. Seniors Bill Burhoe, Tom Joyce, Clay McNally, Bob Moses and Joe Sullivan turned in superb seasons; the most successful being the undefeated doubles combination of Tom Joyce and Joe Sullivan. The underclassmen also deserve recognition for their excellent games.

The Tennis Team, especially the graduating seniors, would like to thank Mr. Case for many fine years of tennis and many great years of friendship.

Team captains Jim Ahigian, Bob Mulhall, and Jack Reardon led the team to its most successful season ever—eleven wins and one loss. This record was good enough to finish second in the Suburban Conference and second in the Suburban Conference Championships. Both of these seconds were at the hands of Brockton (University) High School.

Next year's team should be even better with twelve returning lettermen and an outstanding diving team. Senior Captain Jack Reardon leaves with his 1:06.5 min. 100 yard backstroke record still standing. All other records are held by next year's team. This sounds promising for a fantastic season in '77!

This year's Captains were Martha Fox and Beth Schweitzer. Martha, center fielder and Beth, first baseman, ended their fourth year on the varsity squad with a great season. Each scored over thirty runs, stole the most bases, and batted over 450.

Senior Ginnie DeAngelis, the starting left fielder, also ended four years on the varsity squad. She continually made spectacular catches and looked very sharp at the plate.

As the season opened, the team lacked a third baseman. Senior Joyce Gresl took over the hot corner and did an excellent job. Joyce had a great year and led the team with three home runs.

The team ended their regular season in the Tri-Valley League in second place with a record of 13-4. They entered the State Tournament for the second successive year. The girls defeated Harwich 10-5 with Chuckie Smith going the distance for the win. The squad traveled to Taunton for the quarter-finals where they lost to North Attleboro 17-5.

The fun, productive season ended with that game but next year's squad promises to rival the '76 Wolverines.

ACTIVITIES

we'd like to make things perfectly clear.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council, under the leadership of Jim Fabiano, Mary Ann McCoy, Lissi Sesnovich, and Meredith Beers, continued to play an active role in the leadership, direction, and affairs of the school.

The council successfully sold "Green Pride" buttons and hats in the fall. They raffled the school stereo and planned a highly successful school-wide dance.

All in all, the council greatly contributed to the unity of our school.

STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

D. Pearce, M. Beers, B. Aspinwall.

The Student Advisory Board offers the students of Westwood High an opportunity to share their feelings with the faculty and administration. The Board promotes the exchange of ideas concerning life at the high school in order to create an environment in which all students may learn and enjoy their years at Westwood High School.

Always changing, experimenting, reaching . . .

The Student-Faculty Forum is a school government body which meets monthly and is comprised of Faculty Senate members, Student Council members and at-large members of the faculty and student population.

The Forum kept itself busy with the questions of class rank and expanding student responsibilities. They also became involved with reforms proposed by the student steering committee.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

This year Westwood High School hosted two exchange students — Ewald Filler from Germany and Mari Tsuda from Japan. With the aid of their special friends in the AFS Club, the students were readily adopted into a great variety of school functions. Mike Kusmin partook of a similar experience this year in Mexico. The exchange students came as strangers and will have to leave behind many close friends.

The club sponsored another successful International Dinner in April to help the Field Service pay for the foreign students' expenses. The annual magazine drive once again proved successful and provided the bulk of financial support.

The participation of many students in the activities of AFS will hopefully stimulate their desire to meet people from different cultures.

This year was probably the most successful for the National Honor Society. Under President Kim Ofria, Vice President Becky Smyth, Secretary Leslie Williams, and Treasurer Grace Pisano, the organization engaged in many worthwhile activities. An exchange program with Hingham and Framingham North allowed inter-towon discussions of goals and ideas. A successful fund-raising project provided money to purchase a set of books for the Media Center. Other community and school service projects kept members busy throughout the year. In addition, several cookouts and dinners were held for fun and relaxation.

Finally, the 1976 induction of new members was an original, special occasion involving both junior and senior members. Hopefully the enthusiasm, innovation, and co-operation of the current National Honor Society will continue.

Special thanks to advisors Mr. Peter Case and Miss H. Joan Dillon for all they did to make 1976 a great and memorable year.

Drama Club

The 1975-76 Drama Club, under the direction of Mrs. Ellin Booras, completed another year of success.

The excitement began with the senior class play — "Tom Jones." A fun production for all, the senior play introduced many new faces to the Westwood stage.

"The American Dream" was Westwood's entry into the Massachusetts Drama Festival. Student directed, the play was a fine production.

Westwood's fourth annual musical "Oklahoma!" continued the success of all of the past musicals. A cast and crew of over seventy is congratulated for its great efforts.

Under the supervision of Ms. Hernan, the club finished the year with three student-directed one-act plays in June.

Mrs. Ellin Booras, a devoted and talented director, will not be with us next year. She will surely be missed for all of the happiness and cheer she has brought to many at Westwood High School.

Throughout the school year the Business Club faithfully performs thousands of odd secretarial jobs which are easily and efficiently handled by the skillful "super secretaries."

The monthly school menus, letters, releases, booklets, and medical forms are just a few examples of all the work these talented students perform. In addition, many of the members serve as office assistants throughout the school system and aid a variety of community organizations in the town.

HEALTH CAREERS CLUB

The members of the Health Careers Club all plan to enter the medical field after college or training. Under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Clement and the leadership of Jane Sullivan, the girls have gone on a variety of field trips and have had many meetings with special guest speakers.

This year the Astronomy Club was graced with a variety of new members. Meetings were held at Jon Hubbard's house and observations were made in a neighboring field. A field trip was taken to the observatory at Wellesley College.

Meetings were fun and informal and full of "Stone beating." Because the cloudy spring weather prevented observing, the club members were forced to play a lot of pool and ping-pong. The club plans to hold a summer meeting for one last get-together and look at the stars before the seniors leave for college.

STUDENT STEERING COMMITTEE

The object of the Student Steering Committee is to expose the grievances felt by the majority of students towards certain areas of studies. The findings of the committee were presented to the administration and faculty members. From their findings, the students have convinced a variety of departments to alter their courses or make necessary additions to their programs of studies.

One of the best literary magazines in the history of the school was produced by the "community-type" staff of No Parentheses.

The literary staff, under the leadership of Karol Ballantine, and the support of Mrs. Eberly, along with Mr. Wellsman's fantastic graphic arts staff, produced a magazine which sold like hot-cakes to all of the students.

SACRED CHEESE

This year's Sacred Cheese editors Mitch Katler, Bob Moses, and Steve Karp knew they would have to build a talented and dedicated staff to keep the award-winning newspaper one of the top in the northeastern United States.

With the aid of Mr. Milan, the Cheese rolled off the presses in the fall and its climax was the Thanksgiving issue. Mr. Chicetti, Mr. Wellsman, and the students of the Graphic Arts classes lent tremendous support by setting and printing all copies of the paper this year.

Unfortunately, the Cheese had to end its circulation in 1975, due to student apathy.

Behind the twirling baton of Stephen Polechronis and the drilling of Mr. Bonaiuto, the Westwood Wolverine Marching Band proved to be a great source of school pride.

This year the band performed in the Somerset Music Festival, Wellesley's Veterans Day Parade, Quincy's Christmas Parade, the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival Parade, and the Memorial Day Parade. This was all in addition to the regular weekly half-time shows on the gridiron.

Many responsibilities were placed in the hands of the officers: President Kim Crocker, Vice-President Craig Madge, Treasurer Jean Hildebrandt, Secretary Karol Ballantine, Librarians Sue Dettbarn and Ellyn Kusmin, and Publicity Director Doug Shamlian.

The new "military" image complemented the traditional high quality sound of the band. The band proudly displays their Division I certificate awarded to them for being one of the top bands in all of southeastern Massachusetts.

This year's Westwood High School Concert Band performed successfully in four concerts. The time and effort that the students placed in their rehearsals and practice sessions were acknowledged by all of their audiences through thrilling rounds of applause.

Their first concert, the annual Spring Pops Concert which was held to benefit the Scholarship fund, brought applause from a relaxed audience which responded to "The Stars and Stripes March" with a standing ovation.

The second concert was an Exchange Concert. The Westwood Band opened their homes to the Spaulding Red Raider Concert Band from Rochester, New Hampshire. Besides giving what many parents believed to be the best Exchange Concert that the band has ever sponsored, the young musicians attended a dance and a party at Michele's house.

The third concert was given in Quincy High School to an audience full of strangers and judges in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival. Despite their excellent performance, the band received a Division II rating.

They finished the year with an Exchange Concert in Rochester, New Hampshire. The townspeople proved to be hospitable, and everyone enjoyed the concert. Both bands participated in a long mountain climb, and everyone slept well after their trek. The kids all had a good time, and nobody wanted to take the early bus home to Westwood.

ORCHESTRA

The Westwood High School Orchestra has been another one of a number of award winning groups in the music department. This year's orchestra had a successful exchange concert along with the chorus. The exchange was held with New Britain, Connecticut and it proved to be enjoyable for all.

The orchestra also performed at the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival, the Pops Concert and the Christmas Concert.

DANCE BAND

This year's WHS Dance Band met with great success at performances given at the Senior Class Banquet, elementary schools, Rotary Pancake Breakfast, and a variety of concerts. To top off the year, the band had a very successful trip to Maine.

The band members wish to thank Mr. Paul Monaghan for his never-ending dedication to the group.

The Double Quartet was pleased to receive top awards for a tremendous performance in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival. Congratulations are also in order for Mr. Markarian's continuing efforts in behalf of the group.

We've Got It All

Mr. Stack gratefully thanks the Class of '76 for the special honor of the Green Years dedication.

The objective of this year's Green Years staff was to produce a book capturing the spirit of the Class of 1976.

Through many hours of work, I believe that I have included a variety of activities and faces to grace the pages of this book. The upper classmen should be pleased with their book because I have attempted to highlight their involvement in every aspect of life at Westwood High School. This book is full of memories that the underclassmen should enjoy as well.

My many thanks to those who worked along with me to complete the momentous task of planning, scheduling, photographing, writing, editing, proofing, and all the other aspects that contribute to the final product. We are all justly proud!

Good luck in the years to come — see you at the reunions.

SENIOR CLASS BANQUET

Taking all day to create the atmosphere of "Shangri-La", the decoration committee was proud to see the cafeteria evolve into an enchanting situation. A giant crepe paper canopy adorned with tin lanterns hung from the ceiling, while brightly painted murals decorated the walls.

Almost the entire class partook of the catered roast beef dinner. Entertainment was provided by the WHS Dance Band and the floor was always packed with high-spirited dancers. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of class superlatives by Karol Ballantine.

The senior class was justly proud of their behavior, and very pleased that they did not signify an end to a long school tradition.

CLASS DAY

Class Day was a memorable occasion for many students who were granted recognition for their athletic and academic participation in school this year. Awards were given to those who showed great achievement along with high moral characteristics. Principal's citations were presented by Mr. Duane Kocina to those students who contributed their time and efforts to service in the school.

The ceremony was highlighted by the dedication and presentation of the 1976 Green Years to Mr. Richard Stack.

GRADUATION

In one moment we experienced feelings of both joy and anguish. Our four years of growth and learning in the security of Westwood High School had come to an end.

It is now our turn to feel the reality of the world on our own two shoulders. We must shape our own lives and decide on our own future. We must expand on all that we have learned in this community in order to make the world a happier place in which our children may grow.

Remember always that you have not only the right to be an individual;
you have an obligation to be one.
You cannot make any useful contribution in life unless you do this.

—Eleanor Roosevelt

OUR FRIENDS IN ROOM 72

1976 The Bicentennial Year

The year 1976 is a special year in our nation's history. The United States has been in existence for 200 years, and her heritage stems from small eastern communities like Westwood.

As a tribute to the bicentennial, we have selected a variety of pictures from the Baker Collection in the Westwood Public Library to represent a glimpse of the Town of Westwood in the eighteenth century.

RANDOM FACES

"Hey wait a minute, we're on the same team!"

"What did I do wrong this time?"

"My bunion is killing me."

"God, please help me."

"Don't talk with your mouth full... dahling!!"

"Hey there fellas"

"Not exactly an epicuri-an's delight, but we're not allowed to leave campus."

Guess who's gonna' go swimming!

"Guess who's cheating on Annie."

Life is a garden of roses... or daisies!

"I know what you mean. I'd like to play first base, too."

"Me want banana."
